THE MAN AND THE FOX / El hombre y el zorro Ages 3 & up

by Idries Shah Illustrated by Sally Mallam Spanish translation by Rita Wirkala

A man tricks a young fox into believing that he will give him a chicken. However, the fox gets trapped, but through ingenuity and perseverance he manages to escape. This story can inspire children to face challenges and to overcome and, sometimes, make use of obstacles in their path to solve problems.

THE MAN WITH BAD MANNERS / El hombre maleducado Ages 3 & up

by Idries Shah Illustrated by Rose Mary Santiago Spanish translation by Rita Wirkala

The first of these Afghan tales to be set in the West, this story is about a badly behaved man and how a young boy initiates a plan to change his behavior and, with the help of all the villagers, succeeds. It will bring laughter to young children and at the same time teach them valuable lessons about conflict resolution, initiative and co-operation.

THE FARMER'S WIFE / La esposa del granjero Ages 3 & up

by Idries Shah Illustrated by Rose Mary Santiago Spanish translation by Angélica Villagrán de Gonzales

Youngsters will soon catch on to the pattern of this rollicking, cumulative tale of a woman's efforts to retrieve an apple from a hole in the ground. They will enjoy learning the highly predictable lines by heart. But when a surprise event changes the direction of the tale, their expectations will be jolted in a most amusing way.

THE SILLY CHICKEN / El pollo bobo

Ages 3 & up

by Idries Shah Illustrated by Jeff Jackson Spanish translation by Rita Wirkala

"Set in the Middle East, Shah's retelling of a Sufi story sends a gentle message to readers: just because someone says it's so, does not make it so...With its simple language and repeating phrases, the story begs to be told and...colorful illustrations lend a zany accent to the antics..." -- School Library Journal

THE LION WHO SAW HIMSELF IN THE WATER /

El león que se vio en el agua

Ages 3 & up

by Idries Shah Illustrated by Ingrid Rodriguez Spanish translation by Angélica Villagrán de Gonzales

A good-natured lion is misunderstood by the rest of the jungle animals because of his loud, growling voice. He bends to drink in a pool and sees a fierce creature staring back at him. He is too frightened to drink. Just as the lion sees himself in the water, children can see themselves in him. They can use him as an example to learn to deal positively with fears that arise from situations they as yet may not understand.

THE CLEVER BOY AND THE TERRIBLE, DANGEROUS ANIMAL /

El muchachito listo y el terrible y peligroso animal

Ages 3 & up

by Idries Shah Illustrated by Rose Mary Santiago Spanish translation by Rita Wirkala

When a boy visits another village, he is amazed to find the townspeople terrified of something that—just because they have not seen it before—they mistake for a terrible, dangerous animal. With his own knowledge and by demonstration, the boy helps them overcome their fears.

THE OLD WOMAN AND THE EAGLE / La señora y el águila

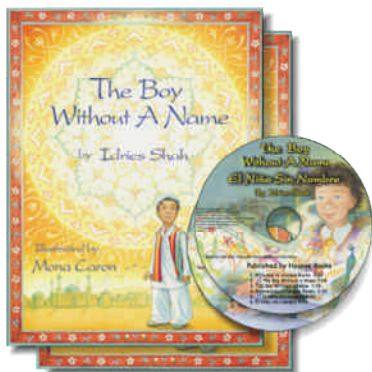

Ages 3 & up

by Idries Shah Illustrated by Natasha Delmar Spanish translation by Rita Wirkala

In this amusing story, an old woman encounters an eagle for the first time. Perplexed by its unfamiliar appearance, she insists that it must be a pigeon and tried to make it so. Her efforts mirror a common pattern of human thought: altering the unfamiliar to make it acceptable.

THE BOY WITHOUT A NAME / El niño sin nombre

Ages 5 & up

by Idries Shah Illustrated by Mona Caron Spanish translation by Rita Wirkala

A boy seeks and eventually finds his own name and is able to discard an old dream for a new and wonderful one. Among the many insights that this story introduces to children is the idea that it takes patience and resolve to achieve one's goals in life.

NEEM THE HALF-BOY & Neem el medio niño

Ages 3 & up

by Idries Shah Illustrated by Midori Mori & Robert Revels Spanish translation by Rita Wirkala

Because she fails to follow the precise instructions given to her by Arif the Wise Man, the Queen of Hich-Hich gives birth to a half-boy. That Neem is able to make himself complete by an act of cleverness, negotiation and compromise teaches children much more than the expected, usual lesson of bravery.

FATIMA THE SPINNER AND THE TENT

Ages 5 & up

by Idries Shah Illustrated by Natasha Delmar

Fatima's life is beset with what seem to be disasters. Her journey leads her from Morocco to the Mediterranean, Egypt, Turkey and, finally, to China. It is in China that she realizes that what seemed at the time to be really unfortunate events were an integral part of her eventual fulfillment. This Teaching-Story is well known in Greek folklore, but this version is attributed to the Sheikh Mohamed Jamaludin of Adrianople (modern-day Edirne) in Turkey, who died in 1750.
